DETAILED ACTION

1. This is in response to the Amendments filed on 9/28/2009.
2. Claims 1-24 are currently pending in this application. Claims 1 and 7-8 have been amended. Claims 21-24 have been newly added. Claims 11-15 have been previously withdrawn as a non-elected invention.
3. In view of the Amendments, all the previous rejections have been withdrawn. A new 103 rejection is set forth below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
5. Claims 1-10 and 16-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Tabota et al. (US Pat. 6,663,929) in view of Totani et al. (JP 2002-166509).

The applied reference has a common Assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

Tabota discloses a polyester-type heat-shrinkable film, an intermediate layer, and an ink layer. The heat-shrinkable layer has a shrinkability of 30-80%, significantly overlapping the instantly claimed range. The ink layer comprises a binder including polyester-type or urethane-type resin and lubricants (see col. 6, ln. 4-18). The intermediate layer comprises an acryl-modified polyester or polyurethane resin with a hydrophilic group including sulfonic acid group (see col. 6, ln. 55-64; col. 7, ln. 11-32).

With respect to the specific values of surface resistances, it has been held that discovery of optimum workable ranges would merely require experimentations. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have utilized a surface resistance with a value of  $\text{Log.}\Omega < 12.0$  for the film of Tabota in order to improve scratch resistance. The same arguments are presented with respect to other properties, such as dynamic friction coefficient and weight loss.

Tabota does not specify the lubricants in the ink layer.

Totani discloses a heat-shrinkable multilayer film, comprising lubricants comprising fatty acid amides and hydrocarbon waxes to improve many properties including heat shrinkability, lubricity, and blocking resistance (see abstract).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have employed the lubricants, as taught by Totani, in the ink layer of Tabota in order to enhance properties such as lubricity and heat shrinkability.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
